John Madden was in Atlanta to announce a football game one weekend when he noticed a special phone near the Falcons' bench. He asked the coach what it was for & was told it was a hotline to God. John asked if he could use it. Coach told him, "Sure, but it'll cost you $100." Madden scratched his head, then thought, what the heck I need a break picking the games. He pulled out his wallet & paid the $100. Madden was perfect that week.

The next weekend Madden was in Florida when he noticed the same kind of phone on the Miami bench. He asked the coach what the phone was for & was told, "It's the hotline to God & if you want to use it'll cost $150." Recalling last week, Madden pulled out his wallet, paid the money & made the call. Madden was perfect that week.

The next weekend Madden was in BYU Stadium in Provo Utah when he noticed the same kind of phone by the Cougar's bench. He asked coach, Lavell Edwards, "Is that phone the hotline to God?"

Lavell said, "Yes & if you want to use it, it'll cost 35 cents." Madden looked incredulously at the Edwards & said, "Wait a second, I just paid $100 at Atlanta & $150 at Miami to use the same phone to God. Why does BYU only charge 35 cents?"

Lavell looked at Madden & replied, "In Utah it's a local call."

McDonald's Fast Food Job Application

This is an actual job application someone submitted at a McDonald's fast-food establishment.....and they hired him!

NAME: Greg Bulmash

DESIRED POSITION: Reclining. Ha ha. But seriously, whatever's available.

If I was in a position to be picky, I wouldn't be applying here in the first place.

DESIRED SALARY: $185,000 a year plus stock options and a Michael Ovitz style severance package. If that's not possible, make an offer and we can Sacrament Meeting Football Quarterback Sneak - Church members quietly leaving during meeting. Draw Play - What many children do with the bulletin during Sacrament. Halftime - The period between Sacrament and Sunday School when many choose to leave. Benchwarmer - Those who do not sing, pray, work, or apparently do anything but sit. Backfield-in-Motion - Making a trip to the back (restroom or water fountain) during the meeting. Staying in the Pocket - What happens to a lot of tithing that should be given to the Lord's work. Two-minute Warning - The point at which you realize the meeting is almost over and begin to gather up your children and belongings. Instant Replay - The speaker loses his/her notes and falls back on last week's Sunday School lesson. Sudden Death - What happens to the attention span of the congregation if the meeting goes into "overtime". Trap - You're called on to pray and are asleep. End Run - Getting out of church quick, without speaking to any visitor or fellow member. Flex Defense - The ability to allow absolutely nothing said during the meeting to affect your life. Halfback Option - The decision of 50% of the congregation to ditch out after Sacrament Meeting. Sacked - Being asked to speak in Sacrament meeting (tomorrow). Blitz - The rush for the refrigerator following the closing prayer on fast Sunday.

1. We believe that elders should move pianos, washers, dryers and several 50 pound bags of storage wheat through narrow hallways, tight door jams and at least one flight of stairs.
2. We believe that the Relief Society is called to provide meals for the needy. We do not believe that the priesthood should cook for anyone, except missionaries, and then it's limited to ordering pizza.
3. We believe in tuna casserole with stale cracker or old potato chip topping, served in a Tupperware dish with a piece of masking tape the bottom that reads Jones, Smith or Brown. And as a side dish we believe that green Jell-O with shaved carrot topping should be served at all church functions, including funerals.
4. We believe that women should stop having children at 35, because 36 is too many.
5. We believe in keeping the Sabbath day holy. But it is okay to watch professional sports as long as the athlete is a descendant of Young, is a convert to the church or owns a professional team in Utah.
6. We believe that drinking caffeinated drinks is not a violation of the Word of Wisdom, as long as they are cold.
7. We believe that ward phone lists are good multi-marketing tools.
8. We believe that Sunday drives are okay as long as it's not on a speed boat or dirt bike.
9. We believe in enduring to the end of the stake high counselors talk and nursery callings.
10. We believe that sleeping on the floor during General Conference is okay, after all, we can read every talk in the conference issue of the Ensign.
11. We believe that ex-Mormons who write anti-Mormon literature are going to hell.
12. We believe that sleeping during sacrament meeting is the highest form of meditation.
13. We believe in kicking our sons out of the house at 19 years old, sending them to a foreign country like Chile, Japan, Germany or New Jersey for two years, and in telling them that they will return men because of it, while, at the same time, sending them dozens of stale cookies and wasting postage by mailing one shoe at a time. We also believe in sending young women away for 18 months when they turn 21, as long as they are not engaged to be married.

You can train a dog. 8. Dogs are easy to buy for. 9. The worst social disease you can get from dogs is fleas. (OK, the really worst disease you can get from them is rabies, but there's a vaccine for it and you can kill the one that gives it to you). 10. Dogs understand what "no" means. 11. Dogs mean it when they kiss you.

HOW DOGS AND MEN ARE THE SAME: 1. Both take up too much space on the bed. 2. Both have irrational fears about vacuum cleaning. 3. Both mark their territory. 4. Neither tells you what's bothering them. 5. The smaller ones tend to be more nervous. 6. Both have an inordinate fascination with women's crotches. 7. Neither does any dishes. 8. Both fart shamelessly. 9. Neither of them notice when you get your hair cut. 0. Both like dominance games. 11. Both are suspicious of the postman. 12. Neither understands what you see in cats.

Sara, the blonde, was getting pretty desperate for money. She decided to go to the nicer, richer neighborhoods around town and look for odd jobs as a handy woman. The first house she came to, a man answered the door and told Sara, "Yeah, I have a job for you. How would you like to paint the porch?" "Sure that sounds great!" said Sara. "Well, how much do you want me to pay you?" asked the man. "Is fifty bucks all right?" Sara asked. "Yeah, great. You'll find the paint and ladders you'll need in the garage." The man went back into his house to his wife who had been listening. "Fifty bucks! Does she know the porch goes all the way around the house?" asked the wife. "Well, she must, she was standing right on it!" her husband replied. About 45 minutes later, Sara knocked on the door. "I'm all finished," she told the surprised homeowner. The man was amazed. "You painted the whole porch?" "Yeah," Sara replied, "I even had some paint left, so I put on two coats!" The man reached into his wallet to pay Sara. "Oh, and by the way," said Sara, "That's not a Porch, it's a Ferrari."

Tech Support Request Last year I upgraded Girlfriend 1.0 to Wife 1.0 and noticed that the new program began unexpected child processing that took up a lot of space and valuable resources.

No mention of this phenomenon was included in the product brochure. In addition, Wife 1.0 installs itself into all other programs and launches during system initialization where it monitors all other system activity. Applications such as Poker night 10.3 and Beer bash 2.5 no longer run, crashing the system whenever selected. I can not seem to purge Wife 1.0 from my system. I am thinking about going back to Girlfriend 1.0 but un-install does not work on this program. Can you help me? Jonathan Powell Dear Jonathan Powell, This is a very common problem men complain about but is mostly due to a primary misconception. Many people upgrade from Girlfriend 1.0 to Wife 1.0 with the idea that Wife 1.0 is merely a "UTILITIES & ENTERTAINMENT" program. Wife 1.0 is an OPERATING SYSTEM and designed by its creator to run everything. WARNING DO NOT TRY TO: un-install, delete, or purge the program from the system once installed. Trying to un-install Wife 1.0 can be disastrous. Doing so may destroy your hard and/or floppy drive. Trying to un-install or remove Wife 1.0 will destroy valuable system resources. You can not go back to Girlfriend 1.0 because Wife 1.0 is not designed to do this. Some have tried to install Girlfriend 2.0 or Wife 2.0 but end up with more problems than the original system. Look in your manual under Warnings- Alimony/Child Support. Others have tried to run Girlfriend 1.0 in the background, while Wife 1.0 is running. Eventually Wife 1.0 detects Girlfriend 1.0 and a system conflict occurs, this can lead to a non-recoverable system crash. Some users have tried to download similar products such as Fling and 1NiteStand. Often their systems have become infected with a virus. I recommend you keep Wife 1.0 and just deal with the situation. Having Wife 1.0 installed myself, I might also suggest you read the entire section regarding General Protection Faults (GPFs). You must assume all responsibility for faults and problems that might occur. The best course of action will be to push apologize button then reset button as soon as lock-up occurs. System will run smooth as long as you take the blame for all GPFs. Wife 1.0 is a great program but is very high maintenance. Suggestions for improved operation of Wife 1.0 -Monthly use utilities such as TLC and FTD -Frequently use Communicator 5.0 Tech Support Anyone need to make an exchange? Head towards your nearest Wal-Mart! Please feel free to insert the appropriate pronoun and spousal title :)))))) I Took Him Back to WalMart My husband and I fought constantly, Why I married him, I'll never know. For all those miserable years I said My hubby has got to go! Tried poisoning cakes, stripping his brakes, Salting his pork chops with lime. Wiring his chair, igniting his hair Even though playing with fire is a crime. But I failed at each plot 'til I suddenly thought Of a way that would set me free! I got rid of him for good and, know what? They couldn't do a thing to me! I took him back to WalMart! They'll take anything back you know! They said they couldn't recall selling him, But they must have if I said so. They just credited him to my Visa and said, "Ya'll come back now, 'ya hear?" They were so nice, polite, pleasant and insistent, I took back his mother the next year! They'll take anything back at WalMart, Though it's broken or rotten or sweet. And know what else? This time of year You don't even need a receipt!

from you; I am doing this as a Community Service'. The priest is happy and leaves the shop. The next morning when the Barber goes to open his shop, there is a Thank you Card and a dozen roses waiting at his door. A police officer goes for a haircut and he also goes to pay the Barber and the barber replies: 'I am Sorry, I cannot accept money from you; I am doing a Community Service'. The Cop is happy and leaves the shop. The next morning when the Barber goes to open his shop, there is a Thank you Card and a dozen Donuts waiting at his door. Two Mormon missionaries go for a haircut and they also go to pay the Barber and barber replies: 'I am Sorry, I cannot accept money from you; I am doing a Community Service'. The next morning when the Barber goes to open his shop, guess what he finds there ? A dozen Mormon missionaries waiting for haircuts....

A woman wants the inside of her house painted and she calls a contractor in to help her. They wander around the house, and she points out the colors she wants. She says, "Now, in the living room, I'd like to have a neutral beige, very soft and warm." The contractor nods, pulls out his pad of paper and writes on it. Then he goes to the window, leans out and yells, "Green side up!" The woman is most perplexed but she lets it slide. They wander into the next room. She says, "In the dining room I'd like a light white, not stark, but very bright and airy." The contractor nods, pulls out his pad of paper and writes on it. Then he goes to the window, leans out, and yells "Green side up"! The woman is even more perplexed but still lets it slide. They wander further into the next room. She says, "In the bedroom, I'd like blue. Restful, peaceful, cool blue." The contractor nods, pulls out his pad of paper and writes on it. Then once more he goes to the window, leans out and yells "Green side up"! This is too much. The woman has to ask. So she says, "Every time I tell you a color, you write it down, but then you yell out the window 'Green side up.' What on earth does that mean?" The contractor shakes his head and says, "I have four blondes laying sod across the street."

Stevie Wonder and Jack Nicklaus are in a bar. Stevie mentions that they ought to get together and play a few holes. "You play golf!?" asks Jack. Stevie says, "Yes, I have been playing for years." "But I thought you were blind; how can you play golf if you are blind?" Jack asks. "I get my caddie to stand in the middle of the fairway and he calls to me. I listen for the sound of his voice and play the ball towards him, then when I get to where the ball lands the caddie moves to the green or further down the fairway and again I play the ball towards his voice," explains Stevie. "But how do you putt?" Nicklaus wondered. "Well," says Stevie, "I get my caddie to lean down in front of the hole and call to me with his head on the ground and I just play the ball to the sound of his voice." Nicklaus says, "What is your handicap?" "Well, I play off scratch," Stevie assures Jack. Nicklaus is incredulous and says to Stevie, "We must play a game sometime." Wonder replies, "Well, people don't take me seriously so I only play for money, and I never play for less than $100,000 a hole." Nicklaus thinks it over and says, "OK, I'm up for that. When would you like to play?" "I don't care - any night next week is OK with me."

While browsing through some dust covered archival material in the recesses of the Roman Section of the British Museum a researcher recently came across a tattered bit of parchment. After some effort he translated it and found that it was a letter from a man called Plutonium with the title of "Magister Fastorium," or keeper of the calendar, to one Cassius. It was dated, strangely enough, 2 BC, November 24 or 2000 years ago. The text of the message follows: Message from: Rome January 18, 1 B.C. Dear Cassius: Are you still working on the Y zero K problem? This change from BC to AD is giving us a lot of headaches and we haven't much time left. I don't know how people will cope with working the wrong way around. Having been working happily downwards forever, now we have to start thinking upwards. You would think that someone would have thought of it earlier and not left it to us to sort out at the last minute. I spoke to Caesar the other evening. He was livid that Julius hadn't done something about it when he was sorting out the calendar. He said he could see why Brutus turned nasty. We called in the consulting astrologers, but they simply said that continuing downwards using minus BC won't work. As usual, the consultants charged a fortune for doing nothing useful. As for myself, I just can't see the sand in an hourglass flowing upwards. We have heard that there are 3 wise guys in the East working on the problem, but unfortunately they won't arrive till it's all over. Some say the world will cease to exist at the moment of transition. Anyway we are continuing to work on this blasted Y zero K problem and I will send you a parchment if anything further develops. Plutonium.

One day while walking down the street a highly successful executive woman was tragically hit by a bus and she died. Her soul arrived up in heaven where she was met at the Pearly Gates by St. Peter himself. "Welcome to Heaven," said St. Peter. "Before you get settled in though, it seems we have a problem. You see, strangely enough, we've never once had an executive make it to heaven and we're not really quite sure what to do with you." "No problem, just let me in." said the woman. "Well, I'd like to," said St. Peter, "but I have a higher authority to consider. Please wait." With that St. Peter disappeared and within seconds reappeared. "What has been decided is that we're going to let you spend a day in Hell and a day in Heaven and then let you choose whichever place you want to spend your eternity." "Actually, I think I've made up my mind...I prefer to stay in Heaven", said the woman. "Sorry, rules are rules..." And with that St. Peter put the executive in an elevator and it went down to hell. When the doors opened she found herself stepping out onto the putting green of a beautiful golf course. In the distance was a country club and standing in front of her were all her friends - fellow executives that she had worked with and they were all dressed in evening gowns and cheering for her. They ran up and kissed her on both cheeks and they talked about old times. They played an excellent round of golf and at night went to the country club where she enjoyed an excellent steak and lobster dinner. She met the Devil who was actually a really nice guy (kinda cute) and she had a great time telling jokes and dancing. She was having such a good time that before she knew it, it was time to leave. Everybody shook her hand and waved good-bye as she got on the elevator. The elevator went up and opened back up at the Pearly Gates where St. Peter was waiting for her. "Now it's time to spend a day in heaven," he said. So she spent the next 24 hours lounging around on clouds and playing the harp and singing. She had a great time and before she knew it her 24 hours were up. St. Peter came to get her. "So, now you've spent a day in heaven and a day in hell. Now you must choose your eternity." The woman paused for a second and then replied, "Well, I never thought I'd say this, I mean, Heaven has been really great and all, but I think I had a better time in Hell." So St. Peter escorted her to the elevator, hit the down button, sending her back to Hell. When the doors of the elevator opened she found herself standing in a desolate wasteland covered in garbage and Filth. She saw that her friends were dressed in rags and were picking up the garbage and putting it in sacks. The Devil came up to her and put his arm around her. "I don't understand," stammered the woman, "yesterday I was here and there was a golf course and a country club and we ate lobster and we danced and had a great time. Now all that there is is a wasteland of garbage and all my friends look miserable." The Devil looked at her and smiled. "Yesterday we were recruiting you; today, you're staff."

There was a church where the preacher and the song leader were not getting along. This began to spill over into the worship service. One week the preacher preached on commitment, and how we should dedicate ourselves to service. The song leader then led the song, I Shall Not Be Moved. The next Sunday, the preacher preached on giving and how we should gladly give to the work of the Lord. The song leader then led the song; Jesus Paid It All. The next Sunday, the preacher preached on gossiping and how we should watch our tongues. The song leader then led the song; I Love To Tell the Story The preacher became very disgusted over the situation, and the next Sunday he told the congregation he was considering resigning. The song leader then led the song; Oh, Why Not Tonight. As it came to pass, the preacher resigned and the next week informed the church that it was Jesus that led him there and it was Jesus that was taking him away. The song leader then led the song, What A Friend We Have in Jesus.

he was right. MARCH: Had a busy day first of the month. My owner was elected president of the PTA & used me to prepare a speech. APRIL: Grandpa visited us this month. He kept me on his lap for an hour reading I Cor 13. He seems to think more of me than do some people in my own household. MAY: I have a few green stains on my pages. Some spring flowers were pressed in my pages. JUNE: I look like a scrapbook. They have stuffed me full of newspaper clippings - one of the girls was married. JULY: They put me in a suitcase today. I guess we are off on vacation. I wish I could stay home; I know I'll be closed up in this thing for at least two weeks. AUGUST: Still in the suitcase. SEPTEMBER: Back home at last and in my old familiar place. I have a lot of company. Two women's magazines and four comic books are stacked on top of me. I wish I could be read as much as they are. OCTOBER: They read me a little bit today. One of them is very sick. Right now I am sitting in the center of the coffee table. I think the Pastor is coming by for a visit. NOVEMBER: Back in my old place. Somebody asked today if I were a scrapbook. DECEMBER: The family is busy getting ready for the holidays. How many SEC students does it take to change a light bulb? Well... At Vanderbilt it takes two. One to change the bulb and one more to explain how they did it every bit as well as any Ivy Leaguer. t Georgia it takes three. One to change the bulb, and two to phone a friend at Georgia Tech and get instructions. At Florida it takes four. One to screw in the bulb, and three to figure out how to get high off the old one. At Alabama it takes five. One to change it, two to talk about how Bear would have done it, and two to throw the old bulb at Auburn students. At Ole Miss it takes six. One to change it, two to mix the drinks, and three to find the perfect J. Crew outfit to wear for the occasion. At LSU it takes seven, and each one gets credit for four semester hours for it At Kentucky it takes eight. One to screw it in, and seven to discuss how much brighter it shines during basketball season. At Tennessee it takes ten. Two to figure out how to screw it in, two to buy an orange lampshade, and six to phone a radio call-in show and talk about how Phillip Fulmer is too stupid to do it. At Mississippi State it takes fifteen. One to screw in the bulb, two to buy the Skoal, and twelve to shout, "GO TO HELL, OLE MISS, GO TO HELL!!!" At Auburn it takes 100. One to change it, 49 to talk about how they do it better than Bama, and 50 who realize it's all a lie At South Carolina it takes 80,000. One to screw it in, and 79,999 to discuss how this will finally be the year they have a good football team. At Arkansas it takes none. There is no electricity in Arkansas.

EVERYTHING I REALLY NEED TO KNOW I LEARNED FROM NOAH'S ARK 1. Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the ark. 2. Stay fit. When you're 600 years old, someone might ask you to do something REALLY big. 3. Don't listen to critics -- do what has to be done. 4. Build on the high ground. 5. For safety's sake, travel in pairs. 6. Two heads are better than one. 7. Speed isn't always an advantage. The cheetahs were on board, but so were the snails. 8. If you can't fight or flee -- float! 9. Take care of your animals as if they were the last ones on earth. 10. Don't forget that we're all in the same boat. 11. When they do nothing, they don't hurt anybody. When they do something is when they become dangerous.

THE LOCH NESS MONSTER AND THE ATHEIST An atheist was spending a quiet day fishing when suddenly his boat was attacked by the Loch Ness monster. In one easy flip, the beast tossed him and his boat high into the air then opened its mouth to swallow both. As the man sailed head over heels, he cried out, "Oh, my God! Help me!" At once, the ferocious attack scene froze in place and, as the atheist hung in mid-air, a booming voice came down from the clouds. "I thought you didn't believe in Me!" "Come on God, give me a break!," the man pleaded. "Two minutes ago I didn't believe in the Loch Ness monster either!" The Atheist continues, "God, please let the Loch Ness Monster be a Christian." God replies, "So be it." The scene starts up, atheist falling. The Loch Ness Monster folds his claws together and says, "Lord, bless this food you have so graciously provided."

mean and tough looking lady opens the door, and before she has a chance to say anything, he runs inside and dumps cow patties all over the carpet. He says, "Lady, if this vacuum cleaner don't do wonders cleaning up that horse manure, I'll eat every chunk of it." She turns to him with a smirk and says, "You want ketchup on that?" the Salesman says, "why do you ask?" She says "We just moved in and we haven't got the electricity turned on yet."

A young boy had just gotten his driving permit. He asked his father, who was a minister, if they could discuss his use of the car. His father said to him, "I'll make a deal with you. You bring your grades up, study your bible more, and get your hair cut, then we will talk about it." A month later the boy came back and again asked his father if they could discuss his use of the car. His father said, "Son, I'm real proud of you. You have brought your grades up, you've studied your bible diligently, but you didn't get a hair cut!" The young man waited a moment and replied, "You know dad, I've been thinking about that. You know Samson had long hair, Moses had long hair, Noah had long hair, and even Jesus had long hair." His father replied, "Yes son, and they walked everywhere they went!"

A pastor of a church who was previously a sailor, was very aware that ships are addressed as "she"; and her". He often wondered what gender computers should be addressed. To answer that question, he set up two groups of computer experts. The first consisted of women, and the second of men. Each group was asked to recommend whether computers should be referred to in the feminine gender, or the masculine gender. They were asked to give 4 reasons for their recommendation. The group of women reported that the computers should be referred to in the masculine gender because: 1. In order to get their attention, you have to turn them on. 2. They have a lot of data, but are still clueless. 3. They are supposed to help you solve problems, but half the time they are the problem. 4. As soon as you commit to one, you realize that, if you had waited a little longer you could have had a better model. The men, on the other hand, concluded that Computers should be referred to in the feminine gender because: 1. No one but the Creator understands their internal logic. 2. The native language they use to communicate with other computers is incomprehensible to everyone else. 3. Even your smallest mistakes are stored in long-term memory for later retrieval. 4. As soon as you make a commitment to one, you find yourself spending half your paycheck on accessories for it.

MESS TEST Smear peanut butter on the sofa and curtains. Now rub your hands in the wet flower bed and rub on the walls. Place a fish stick behind the couch and leave it there all summer. Obtain a 55-gallon box of Legos. (If Legos are not available, you may substitute roofing tacks or broken bottles.) Have a friend spread them all over the house. Put on a blindfold. Try to walk to the bathroom or kitchen. Do not scream (this could wake a child at night). GROCERY STORE TEST Borrow one or two small animals (goats are best) and take them with you as you shop at the grocery store. Always keep them in sight and pay for anything they eat or damage. DRESSING TEST Obtain one large, unhappy, live octopus. Stuff into a small net bag making sure that all arms stay inside. FEEDING TEST Obtain a large plastic milk jug. Fill halfway with water. Suspend from the ceiling with a stout cord. Start the jug swinging. Try to insert spoonfuls of soggy cereal (such as Fruit Loops or Cheerios) into the mouth of the jug while pretending to be an airplane. Now dump the contents of the jug on the floor. NIGHT TEST Prepare by obtaining a small cloth bag and fill it with 8 to 12 pounds of sand. Soak it thoroughly in water. At 8:00 PM begin to waltz and hum with the bag until 9:00 PM. Lay down your bag and set your alarm for 10:00 PM. Get up, pick up your bag, and sing every song you have ever heard. Make up about a dozen more and sing these too until 4:00 AM. Set alarm for 5:00 AM. Get up and make breakfast. Keep this up for 5 years. Look cheerful. PHYSICAL TEST Obtain a large bean-bag chair and attach it to the front of your clothes. Leave it there for 9 months. Now remove 10% of the beans. Purchase a newspaper. Go home and read it quietly for the last time. FINAL ASSIGNMENT Find a couple who already have a small child. Lecture them on how they can improve their child's discipline, patience, tolerance, toilet training, and table manners. Suggest many ways they can improve. Emphasize to them that they should never allow their children to run wild. Enjoy this experience. It will be the last time you will have all the answers! 1. Ask the cashier if they take pesos. 7. Ask the sales person in the pet store if gerbils come in bulk and if they have much white meat on them. 8. Ride the elevator all day. 9. Buy a bunch of clothes. Return them later, and when the salesperson asks why, say "they didn't look good on my dog" 10. Come in to the drug store looking depressed. Ask if they have over-the-counter prozac. 11. Stay in the magazine store all day and read the magazines cover to cover. 12. If you are a guy, go in to a woman's clothing store, and bring dresses into the dressing room with you. Come out, and in your most feminine voice say "they just aren't me" 13. Do cartwheels down the main part of the mall. 14. Wear sunglasses, carry a cane, and set up a pot in front of you that says "help me, I'm blind" see how much money you can get. 15. Test all the mattresses and beds. 16. Go to sleep in the bed display at department stores. Stir and snore when people walk by. 17. Ask to hold one of the dogs in the pet store. Let it escape. 18. Go into Pier 1 and ask if they have any big pieces of junk made of straw. 19. Knock over displays. 20. Rock back and forth slowly in front of a security camera. ***** A bunch of stuff to ponder on If you throw a cat out a car window does it become kitty litter? eems an elderly gentleman had serious hearing problems for a number of years. He went to the doctor and the doctor was able to have him fitted for a set of hearing aids that allowed the gentleman to hear 100%. The elderly gentleman went back in a month to the doctor and the doctor said, "your hearing is perfect. Your family must be really pleased you can hear again." To which the gentleman said, "Oh, I haven't told my family yet. I just sit around and listen to the conversations. I've changed my will three times!" Top 10 Rejection Lines Given By Women (and what they actually mean) 10. I think of you as a brother. (You remind me of that inbred banjo-playing geek in 'Deliverance'.) 9. There's a slight difference in our ages. (I don't want to do my dad.) 8. I'm not attracted to you in 'that' way. (You are the ugliest dork I've ever laid eyes on.) 7. My life is too complicated right now. (I don't want you spending the whole night or else you may hear phone calls from all the other guys I'm seeing.) 6. I've got a boyfriend. (I prefer my male cat and a half gallon of Ben and Jerry's.) 5. I don't date men where I work. (I wouldn't date you if you were in the same 'solar system', much less the same building.) 4. It's not you, it's me. (It's you.) 3. I'm concentrating on my career. (Even something as boring and unfulfilling as my job is better than dating you.) 2. I'm celibate. (I've sworn off only the men like you.) 1. Let's be friends. (I want you to stay around so I can tell you in excruciating detail about all the other men I meet and have sex with. It's the male perspective thing.) In response...The male perspective on the same issue... Top 10 rejection lines given by Men (and what they actually mean...) 10. I think of you as a sister. E-Mail Blues You know it's time to join E-Mail Anonymous when... 1. You wake up at 3 am to go to the bathroom and stop to check your e-mail on the way back to bed. 2. You name your children eudora, aol and dotcom. 3. You turn off your modem and get this awful empty feeling, as if you just pulled the plug on a loved one. 4. You spend half of the plane trip with your laptop on your lap...and your child in the overhead compartment. 5. You decide to stay in college for an additional year or two, just for the free internet access. 6. You laugh at people with 14.4-baud modems. 7. You start using smileys in your snail mail. 8. You find yourself typing "com" after every period when using a word processor.com 9. You refer to going to the bathroom as downloading. 10. You can't call your mother...she doesn't have a modem. 11. You check your mail. It says "no new messages." So you check it again. 12. You don't know what gender three of your closest friends are, because they have neutral screen names and you never bothered to ask. 13. You move into a new house and decide to netscape before you landscape. 14. You tell the cab driver you live at <http://1000.edison.garden/house/brick.html> 15. You start tilting your head sideways to smile. 16. After reading this message, you immediately e-mail it to a friend.

The following are actual signs seen in various places across the good ol' U.S.A.: At a Santa Fe gas station: "We will sell gasoline to anyone in a glass container." In a New York restaurant: "Customers who consider our waitresses uncivil ought to see the manager." On the wall of a Baltimore estate: "Trespassers will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. --Sisters of Mercy" In the window of a long-established New Mexico dry cleaners: "38 years on the same spot." In a Los Angeles dance hall: "Good clean dancing every night but Sunday." In a Florida maternity ward: "No children allowed." In a New York drugstore: "We dispense with accuracy." In the offices of a loan company: "Ask about our plans for owning your home." In a New York medical building: "Mental Health Prevention Center" On a New York convalescent home: "For the sick and tired of the Episcopal Church." On a Maine shop: "Our motto is to give our customers the lowest possible prices and workmanship." At a number of military bases: "Restricted to unauthorized personnel." On a display of "I love you only" Valentine cards: "Now available in multi-packs." In the window of a Kentucky appliance store: "Don't kill your wife. Let our washing machine do the dirty work." In a funeral parlor: "Ask about our layaway plan." In a clothing store: "Wonderful bargains for men with 16 and 17 necks." In a Tacoma, Washington men's clothing store: "15 men's wool suits, $10. They won't last an hour!" On a shopping mall marquee: "Archery Tournament -- Ears pierced" Outside a country shop: "We buy junk and sell antiques." In the window of an Oregon store: "Why go elsewhere and be cheated when you can come here?" In a New England restaurant: "Open 7 days a week and weekends." On a radiator repair garage: "Best place to take a leak." On the vestry of a New England church: "Will the last person to leave please see that the perpetual light is extinguished." cemetery: "Persons are prohibited from picking flowers from any but their own graves." On a roller coaster: "Watch your head." On the grounds of a public school: "No trespassing without permission." On a Tennessee highway: "When this sign is under water, this road is impassable." Similarly, in front of a New Hampshire car wash: "If you can't read this, it's time to wash your car." And apparently, somewhere in England in an open field otherwise untouched by human presence, there is a sign that reads, "Do not throw stones at this sign."

The local NBA team is named after the entire state instead of a city. Schools stay open if two feet of snow falls overnight but close for the opening of hunting season. People wear shorts and t-shirts if the temperature rises above 32 degrees. Your neighbors complain about where they live, yet they refuse to return to the state they moved from. There is a church on every corner but they all teach the same thing. You go to a wedding reception where the bride isn't pregnant, but her mother is. The most popular public transportation system is a ski lift. People drive to Idaho to pick up a gallon of milk so they can play the lottery. College football rivalries are bigger than the Super Bowl. Beer drinkers don't shop on Sunday. You don't have to breathe cigarette smoke until you walk outside a building. The cost of living rises while your salary drops. Every driveway has a mini-van and a pickup truck. When you buy an automobile, cigarette lighters are optional equipment but gun and ski racks come standard. Every time a new family moves into your neighborhood the local elementary school has to hire a new teacher. Your paycheck has an additional 10% deduction. Ninety percent of the population was born in California. The July 4th celebration lasts 20 days. More movies are filmed in your town than in Hollywood. You've never had a Mormon missionary knock on your door.

Do you realize that the only time in our lives when we like to get old is when we're kids? If you're less than 10 years old, you're so excited about aging that you think in fractions. How old are you? "I'm four and a half!" You're never 36 and a half. You're four and a half...going on five! That's the key! You get into your teens, now they can't hold you back. You jump to the next number, or even a few ahead. How old are you? "I'm gonna be 16." You could be 13, but hey, you're *gonna* be 16! And then the greatest day of your life happens...you become 21. Even the words sound like a ceremony! ~~*YOU BECOME 21 *~~YYYYYYYES!!! But then you turn 30. Ooohhh what happened there? Makes you sound like bad milk. "He TURNED, we had to throw him out." There's no fun now, you're just a sourpuss. What's wrong?? What changed?? You BECOME 21, you TURN 30, then you're PUSHING 40. Whoa! Put on the breaks, it's all slipping away. Before you know, it, you REACH 50...and your dreams are gone. But wait, you MAKE IT to 60. You didn't think you would!!! So you BECOME 21, TURN 30, PUSH 40, REACH 50, and MAKE IT to 60. You've built up so much speed that you HIT 70! After that, it's a day by day thing; you HIT Wednesday. You get into your 80's, and every day is a complete cycle; you HIT lunch. You TURN 4:30. You REACH bedtime. (My grandmother won't even buy green bananas. It's an investment you know, and maybe a bad one.) And it doesn't end there. Into the 90's you start going backwards; "I was JUST 92. Then a strange thing happens. If you MAKE it over 100, you become a little kid again. I'm 100 and a half.

This one explains MANY things in life . . . All babies start out with the same number of raw cells which, over nine months, develop into a complete female baby. The problem occurs when cells are instructed by the little chromosomes to make a male baby instead. Because there are only so many cells to go around, the cells necessary to develop a male's reproductive organs have to come from cells already assigned elsewhere in the female. Recent tests have shown that these cells are removed from the communications center of the brain, migrate lower in the body and develop into male sexual organs. If you visualize a normal brain to be similar to a full deck of cards, this means that males are born a few cards short, so to speak. And some of their cards are in their shorts. This difference between the male and female brain manifests itself in various ways. Little girls will tend to play things like house or learn to read. Little boys, however, will tend to do things like placing a bucket over their heads and running into walls. Little girls will think about doing things before taking any action. Little boys will just punch or kick something and will look surprised if someone asks them why they just punched their little brother who was half asleep and looking the other way. This basic cognitive difference continues to grow until puberty, when the hormones kick into action and the trouble really begins. After puberty, not only the size of the male and female brains differ, but the center of thought also differs. Women think with their heads. Male thoughts often originate lower in their bodies where their ex-brain cells reside. Of course, the size of this problem varies from man to man. In some men only a small number of brain cells migrate and they are left with nearly full mental capacity but they tend to be rather dull, sexually speaking. Such men are known in medical terms as "Republicans." Other men suffer larger brain cell relocation. These men are medically referred to as "Democrats." A small number of men suffer massive brain cell migration to their groins. These men are usually referred to as..... "Mr. President." A farmer rings up the vet and says "two of me chickens have stopped laying" The vet says "really, how do you know?" The farmer says "I just ran over the bastards in me tractor." his door-to-door entrepreneur became rather bored with his job of selling Bibles, so he decided to become a boss, hiring three people to sell Bibles for him. He interviewed three people. The first came in and said, "I want to sell Bibles for you." .."OK, you're hired. Here's your kit; go sell!" The second came in and said, "I want to sell Bibles for you." Two blonds were walking through the woods and they came to some tracks. The first blond said "These look like deer tracks," and the other one said, "No, they look like moose tracks." They argued and argued for a while and they were still arguing when the train hit them.

One day an old old chapel was in need of a new paint job. The Bishop, being particularly cheap, didn't shell out the bucks to have it done professionally and had the deacons do it. The deacons did an all right job until it came time for the steeple. They used all their paint on everything else, and forgot that the steeple needed painting as well. However, Brett had a brilliant idea... Thin what little paint the had left and paint the steeple. If it doesn't rain, the paint can dry and no one would be the wiser. So they thinned and painted. They stepped back to admire their handiwork when the clouds rumbled in unexpectedly, and poured down on the freshly painted church. Amazingly, the steeple was the only area where the paint washed a way. After two minutes of heavy rain, a light broke through the clouds and illuminated the steeple. A deep voice thundered... "Repaint... Repaint and thin no more!!!"
